

The Rose Garden

Long o-silent e (o as in home)

In Minneapolis, by a grove of trees near Lake Harriet, there is a public rose garden. Most of the roses bloom in mid to late June. The roses bloom in the tones of red, pink, yellow, white, and even purple. Many people walk through the rose garden. They walk on stones to see all the beautiful roses. Many people pose for photos in the rose garden. Some people even pose for their wedding photos in the rose garden. It's a wonderful place to visit in Minneapolis.
